COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

ENGLISH 103

COMPOSITION & CRITICAL THINKING (3)

UC:CSU IGETC Area 1B (C-ID ENGL 105)
Prerequisite: English 101. This course develops critical thinking, reading, and argumentative writing skills beyond the level achieved in English 101 and requires the writing of a minimum of 10,000 words in essays and a research paper throughout the semester. It emphasizes reasoning, analysis and strategies of argumentation using interdisciplinary texts that include theoretical and literary works. Evaluations of texts reveal the multicultural/global aspects of our society.

POLITICAL SCIENCE 001

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES (3)

UC:CSU IGETC Area 4H (C-ID POLS 110)
This course is an introduction to government and politics in the United States. Students study the theoretical foundations of American political institutions, the U.S. Constitution, the Constitution of California and Federal System including relations between state and federal governments. The structure, function, powers and politics of the legislative, executive and judicial branches of the Federal government and California state government are also examined. Special topics include: civil liberties, civil rights, political parties, interest groups, media, public opinion, campaigns, the electoral process and the domestic and foreign policymaking processes. This course fulfills graduation requirements for the U.S. Constitution and California state and local government.

COMMUNICATIONS 101

PUBLIC SPEAKING (3)

UC:CSU IGETC Area 1C (C-ID COMM 110)
In this course, training is offered in effective speech composition and delivery. The course assists in building confidence in the delivery of original presentations, acquaints students with the sources of speech materials, and develops discriminating listening through speech analysis.

HISTORY 012

POLITICAL AND SOCIAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES FROM 1865 (3)

UC:CSU IGETC Area 3B, 4F (C-ID HIST 140) HOURS.
Note: History 12 may be taken before History 11.
This course is the standard survey of United States history from 1865 to the present. It provides an analytical study of the history of the United States from the Reconstruction era to today, focusing not only on political and social developments in the history of the United States but also on economic and cultural developments, how various Amendments to the Constitution have influenced American society, and analyzes the United States' ongoing and changing role in international affairs.
