SPANISH 037- Composition And Conversation For Spanish Speakers (UC/CSU) - 5 Units

Enrollment Requirement: Prerequisite: SPANISH 036

This course continues to develop Spanish language proficiency after Spanish 36 and focuses on general academic writing and formal modes of presentation. It is intended for heritage speakers of Spanish who wish to increase their oral and writing skills in the context of themes, topics, and the literary and cultural production of the Spanish-speaking communities. This course familiarizes students with authentic texts written in different styles to provide a platform from which to practice the presentational mode and various rhetorical modes of writing, such as description, narration, exposition, and argumentation. Final projects consist of a research paper and a formal presentation. This course prepares heritage speakers for the Advanced level in the AA degree and for upper-division major courses at four-year universities. Pre-requisite: Spanish 36 or permission of the instructor.

VOC ED 801CE- Non-Traditional Leadership (Repeatable) - 0 Unit

Non-traditional leadership is a social change metaphor intended to draw attention to individuals whose leadership skills emerge from cultural, social, and political conditions that shape their community. Non-traditional leaders are the unsung stakeholders who are distinguished by their intuitive knowledge of how to get things done, their influence with others, their ability to cultivate new relationships, and their refusal to give up on their community. They are community connectors working below the grassroots; driven by enormous hearts and gifts to bring people together to actualize a community enhancement vision. This course is designed to increase the capacity of non-traditional leaders to make a difference in their community by enabling them to identify common values, strengths, hidden assets, existing resources and leadership formations below the grassroots; so that they may design a common vision and take strategic action to enhance their community using the opportunities of the civic process.
